Rene Burke, President and CEO
Citrine Investment Services Ltd.,
Calgary, AB.

Dear Rene,

I am writing you a short note to provide you with some personal feedback regarding your investment services and the investments that you have brought to me.

It is unclear to me what I value most about you and Citrine Investment Services. You have taken the time to understand the types of opportunities with which I am comfortable and I believe that you have provided to me complete transparency of the transactions and their associated risks. The fact that I have not had to solicit information from you regarding the status of each project is refreshing as it has been a foreign concept with other investment brokers with whom I have worked. And no less important to me is that each project has delivered the returns to me as per your initial forecast. It is evident to me that your research of the opportunities has been well planned and thorough. For all you have done for me to date, thank you.

I invite you to keep this letter with your records and you may use it as a reference with other potential investors. Furthermore, I would also be more than willing to provide this feedback to others directly if ever needed. Don't hesitate to ask.

Best Regards,

Gordon Edwards
