Re: CITRINE INVESTMENTS

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been dealing with Rene Burke and Citrine investments since May 2007 and have invested in several offerings.

Too date all have performed exactly as indicated and I am very pleased with the results.

Rene is most diligent in ensuring that as an investor my best interests are looked after especially when it comes to achieving a high rate of return along with a high level of security for the funds invested. She takes care of all the legal documents required making the process as painless as possible.

Rene was recommended to me by a close friend and I have no hesitation in recommended her to others looking for a higher than average rate of return on capital invested.
