

Citrine and You

Contributed by Administrator
Monday, 18 December 2006
Last Updated Wednesday, 27 December 2006

Citrine Investment Services Ltd. searches for investments that: are selected from reputable companies with proven track records, from the private sector provide consistent returns that are less volatile than investments connected to the stock market. You invest in specific projects or in promissory notes, bonds or mortgages.

- allow investors to use RRSPs, LIRAs, RRIFs, and RESPs appeal to the first time investor and the more experienced investor

- may be available with a minimum investment of $5,000 Citrine Investment Services offers the following types of investments: Buy, hold and appreciate. These opportunities are typically raw land investments .Profit-sharing investments. Developers partner with investors to realize mutually beneficial gains.Opportunities that allow investors to participate in leading-edge businesses. Income flowing products through dividend payouts or interest payments.Charitable donations program. The investment choice is up to you! Opportunities are always changing.

Subscribe to our newsletter on this page to stay up to date.

For further information about our products, click here to tell us about yourself.